MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM:

Director, Office of HUMINT Collection

SUBJECT:

National HUMINT Collection Plan
(Revised April 1982)

25X1

1. Attached is the revised Collection Plan on [redacted] 25X1 containing agreed assignments of collection responsibility. This revision follows an assessment of collection and reporting in response to the previous edition. The findings of this assessment are reflected in Part III (The Collection Problem) of the new Plan. In sum, there are new pressures on the HUMINT collectors to produce more information that would assist in developing advantageous US policies vis-a-vis both [redacted] 25X1

[redacted] Except for certain installations, HUMINT remains 25X1 virtually the only source of information on [redacted] internal 25X1 affairs, including policymaking in all areas. Consumers believe that HUMINT collectors outside of [redacted] could do a better job 25X1 covering [redacted] affairs, particularly subjects such as [redacted] 25X1

2. National HUMINT Collection Plans, issued under the authority of Executive Order 12333, are comprehensive statements of HUMINT collection responsibility for designated US Government agencies. Responsibilities assumed by your organization (and those collection/reporting elements under your management or control) are as indicated for the national intelligence objectives listed in Part II (National HUMINT Objectives and Responsible Collectors). Other matters relevant to HUMINT reporting or collection which may pertain to your organization are noted in other parts of the Plan. [redacted] 25X1

3. Agencies without established reporting channels to the Intelligence Community are urged to pass useful information on the national intelligence objectives listed in the Plan to CIA's Domestic Collection Division (in Washington, [redacted]). 25X1 Overseas, these agencies will normally report through Mission channels. 4. For CIA/DDO: Your attention is invited to collection objectives 1, 2, 5, 9, 10, 13-17, 22-24, 26 concerning which the following agencies accepted collection responsibilities: ICA, Commerce, DEA, and Energy. In accordance with DCID 2/8, you are requested to collect and process information from these agencies. You are also requested to be alert for opportunities to collect against those objectives from agencies with which you are in contact which have not been specifically designated in the Plan. [redacted] 25X1

5. For State/D/INR: Also enclosed is a letter forwarding the Collection Plan to [redacted]. I would appreciate 25X1 your arranging for its transmittal, as well as copies of the Collection Plan to the Chiefs of Mission in [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] 25X11

6. For agencies with production/analytic responsibilities, I request that copies of this Plan be provided to the appropriate office(s) of your organization. Analysts wishing to levy amplifying requirements under an objective in Part II of the Plan are urged to cite the objective and forward the requirements through established requirements channels to the agencies or departments with designated collection responsibility. This will assist collectors in meeting their responsibilities as indicated in the Collection Plan. [redacted] 25X1

7. Any questions regarding this subject should be directed to the principal drafter of the Plan, [redacted] phone [redacted] 25X1
